Introduction

The text of this booklet contains messages given by Mir Izgadda from December 2020 through July 2021. His devotees consider his words to be sacred, and as such, they are treated with utmost respect.

It is suggested that we focus and meditate on his words on a daily basis. This booklet serves as a supplement to the earlier publication titled Teaching of Mir Izgadda from 2013.

The Best Form of Worship

The best form of worship in this period of time is truth, purity, cleanliness and charity. Give to those in need without asking anything in return. Giving food to those who are hungry is the best form of charity.

Meditate on the Teachings and the Image

Meditate upon the teachings, upon the image of the Messenger and see the Father in the face of the one He Has sent in this age, and you will receive peace.

Why I Have Come

I have come to you by the Will of the Father who sent me. I came to gather the sheep of the Great Shepherd of the Kingdom of Light. The last days are upon your world, and I am here to gather you into a single covenant. The words I speak are those of the Father who whispered them in my ear. I now speak these same words to you. Hear these words and be refreshed. Hear these words and live.

The time has come that the Father will tell the Gate Keeper to close the door to the Kingdom. When the door is shut, no one else may enter. Be wise and follow the Commandments. Meditate upon my image and upon my teachings and you will find comfort for your souls, and you will find rest for your head in the Kingdom of Light. God is King!

Remain Faithful and Practice Patience

I assure you that if you are always faithful and practice patience, your needs will be fulfilled.

I Came for My Sheep

I did not come to call the world into my fold. I came for my own sheep who know the voice of their shepherd. Come to me and I will lead you to refreshing waters set forth from the beginning by the Father of Greatness.

Your Holy Book

For my devotees, I have told you that there are many sacred texts to read and that you should seek out the truths in each one and that you should discard what did not originate with God. For my closest devotees who meet with me daily, my words are your primary Holy Book*. Revere¹ and protect these revealed words. Reading and hearing the teachings within these words can burn away your past sins.

Many sacred texts have been given to humanity throughout the centuries; but today, in this last era God is revealing teachings specifically to His Remnant. These are the words which He gives to me. This Holy Book of which I speak contains the words given to me by the Father of Greatness. I speak to you that which He speaks to me. Everything I speak to you, as recorded in this Holy Revelation* is by the Will of the Father who sent me.

Treasure God's words. Protect and defend the Holy Book. Be on guard, for the pagans, the unbelievers, the atheists, and in fact many of those who are only nominal in their religious devotion will hate and persecute you because of the teachings of the Messengers. A false Christian will take great joy in uniting with other unbelievers to burn you at the stake and to hang you from a tree because of these words. Governments will imprison you due to their fear of losing their kingdoms to the Kingdom of Light.

Remember this: The very presence of God is within the Holy Book as well as the presence of the Messenger. Revere these words and protect them.

Editor's notes

* The reference to this Holy Book is called Giliana Kudsha (Holy Revelation), or The Giliana (بَيِّنَاتٍ) for short. Pronounced: gee-lee-ah-nah. The letter "g" is pronounced like the first letter in the words "gather" "guard." This should not be confused with the term "Giliuna" which refers to the Book of Revelation in the New Testament. The Giliana is an expanded edition of the Mitnaranuta d'Mir Izgadda (Illumination of the Third Messenger; also known as a Fragment of the Teaching of Mir Izgadda).

1 Over the years, some devotees of Mir Izgadda have received visions and dreams concerning how to display the Holy Book. Instructions were then given by one of the Messengers concerning this matter. Typically the most simple method of displaying the Holy Book is to have it rest in a book holder on a cushioned platform. When not being read, it is covered with a white cloth except during the Holy Days. A more elaborate display involves the Holy Book being on the same book rest but under a canopy or tabernacle. The latter is not necessary.

I Will Never Forget My Blessed Remnant

If I travel from one place to another, I never actually leave you. My child, never forget that I am always with you. By whatever name you know me, call upon me and I shall hear you when you cry out. I will never forget My blessed Remnant.

Pray to the Father and meditate often. I hear your prayers, and they are taken to the Eternal Creator.

I Have Sent My Tabernacle

According to the Will of the Father, the wheels of His Holy Chariot are moving quickly. The Temple in the Kingdom of Heaven is busy with angelic servants carrying out their various assignments given to them by the Father. They are preparing places for each member of the Remnant, so they may be gathered in this age. I walk and carry out the Will of the Father.

To the Remnant, the Father of Greatness has said, “I have sent My Tabernacle unto the earth in a vessel of flesh, but not flesh, in the image of a man, but not man. He shall give you good news for your individual needs. He shall prepare you for your homes which are being created in the Kingdom of Light.¹ Izgadda is My Son and thus My image.² He is the Messenger for your era. I have sent Him into the earth for your benefit. Seek Him out and take hold of His shawl.³ He will unite My people as one, under the one Good Religion — the Religion of Light, without schism, and without divisiveness. Hear His instructions, for they are the instructions that I have given to Him.

“When you look upon Him, think of My own presence, for I am within Him and He is within Me.⁴ I have one begotten Son, and He is manifested in many forms and images in different generations and eras.⁵ Each form which you are familiar with is directly manifested from My own heart. You can not see Me, but you can see My Son who is the mirror of His Father who sent Him.⁶ He is your Lord. He is your Messiah. It is by My own Spirit and power that I cause My image to be born in the form of a man.

“You have known My Son by many names: Melchizedek, Mithra, Shenrab, Jesus, Mani, Izgadda and many other names which you are not familiar with. Whether you know My Son by the name of Jesus or Mithra or Izgadda, there is only one Son; each manifestation is the same. Some have appeared in the image of a man, while others in the form of cherubim⁷, seraphim⁸ and other creatures according to My

Will. In this age, I have given the people of the Good Religion My Son Izgadda. Be obedient to His Word, for what He speaks is what I have spoken to Him.

“In ancient times, before they existed in the flesh, I appointed the Teacher of Righteousness and the Teacher of Light to guide you with the words of My Son who now tabernacles with you. Remain obedient to My Son, and to the Teachers which I have appointed to you for your benefit.

“My Son and the Teachers have appointed priests and other servants to minister to the needs of My Remnant and to guide the sheep in My Way. Be mindful of these, for they have been anointed by My Spirit.”

Those Who Labour for Others

Those who labour for the good of others will be blessed in this life; in the next life, they will be blessed with riches beyond compare. But I say to you, those who enslave others will themselves be enslaved in the next life. Whoever causes someone to fall into financial debt will himself be thrown into debt in his next life. For it will be a very long time before an evil creditor is able to set his foot in Bahisht.

Light from Light

I do not belong to any particular religion. I am not Hindu, nor Buddhist, or Jewish. I am not Zoroastrian or Manichaeism. I am not Christian or Muslim. I am from the Father and it is He who has sent Me to the world to provide light in a single covenant in your era. I am light from light. I serve everyone who wishes to receive light from God, for He who sent me to your world is the Source of light.

I have knowledge of all the good that is in various religions. Additionally, I am aware of the evil that exists in most of the religions in your world. I do not tell anyone to turn away from their religion unless it is of an evil origin or if that religion has become sour over time; I tell you to continue worshipping what you know, if it is true, and if it is benevolent. If it helps raise you and others to God's feet, then continue on. However, if it is not benevolent and if it does not bring you close to Almighty God, then you must abandon it. God is light; God is true; God is King. Worship the one God and be blessed in this and the next life.

In the United Covenant, the Father of Greatness has appointed me to sift through the old religions which once contained light and to give to you what is true and to provide to you revelation from His throne, with respect to the various cultures and the diversities among humanity. In this covenant, all truth is brought into a single prism, which shines light throughout your world. All falsehoods must be removed and burned away, for the darkness and the light can not co-exist.

We have called out a special people to carry the Name of the Eternal Creator. They are His own people; they are His Remnant. They worship according to the instructions given to them through His Messengers. Others in the world are not given such instruction. Blessed are those who have been called to the fold of the Shepherd.

Feeding on the Sacred Words

The religions that were founded thousands of years ago, even though some are still in existence, are not the same today. Most of the sacred texts have been corrupted by men, lost, or destroyed. Many in existence today have been diluted due to bad translations.

In the Kingdom of Heaven, long ago the Father of Greatness commissioned His angelic scribes to restore the writings as they were intended to be. In this day His pristine Message of Light is now being provided for the development of the Blessed Remnant. The Remnant is to feed on the words of these revealed texts which are being compiled in the Holy Revelation.¹

By consuming the spiritual food in the Holy Revelation, the Remnant will be able to sustain itself through the harsh winters of persecution and other trials. Feed on these sacred words from the Ever-Present Creator and you will come to realise that He is the Wise Lord. Come to the Creator and find your rest.²

Feed on the Words of Light and you shall be filled with the knowledge of the truth and with joy and peace. By devout study, reading and application of the Holy Revelation, you will find rest in Bahisht.³

Editor's notes

1 Giliana Kudsha

2 “Oh taste and see that Yahweh is good. Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.” (Psalm 34:8, World English Bible) The Gospel of the Holy Prophet Mani states:

“I have tasted a sweet taste;

I have found no sweeter than the Word of Truth!

I have tasted a sweet taste;

I have no sweeter than the Name of God!

I have tasted a sweet taste;

I have found no sweeter than Christ!

Taste and realise that the Lord is sweet!” (Ch. 8, sec. 94.2)

3 Bahisht is a special term meaning “paradise.” Depending on the context, it can also refer to the Kingdom of Light or the Kingdom of the Heavens. “Out of Bahisht [Paradise] has come a Messenger, a Herald from the Kingdom.” (Gospel of the Holy Prophet Mani Ch. 3, sec. 35.1)

Seek the Good in All

Try to seek out the good in all people. Do not assume anything about others. Pray for those who hate you and those who persecute you.

Complete Faith

If you have complete faith in me, by the power of the Father of Greatness, you will be brought safely across the raging river, to the other side where peace awaits you.

Worship God and Honour His Messenger

Worship the one God, for He is your creator and your King! Whether you call the Creator by the Name of Yahweh, Mar-Yah or Zurvan, He is one God. There are many celestial beings called by the title of God, but the Creator is the Highest God and it is He who is deserving of worship.

Whether you call the Messenger by the name of Jesus, Izgadda or other names, know that the Divine Messengers are one and the same. I am Izgadda and I from the same tree as are all the other Divine Messengers sent by the Creator. I am but a single limb from that same tree. We are light from light. There is no distinction.

Worship God and honour His Messenger.

Hold to That Which is Holy

I can not condone the unrighteous acts performed in the name of various religions and philosophies, whether it is Hinduism, Judaism, Buddhism, Christianity, Islam or any political group. If a religion brings true peace, enlightenment and benevolence to humanity, then within it there is some truth.

There is violence in all of the religions created by humanity. I do not instruct you to cast away your religion unless it is a religion that is not from God. I have not told you that you are not permitted to read the sacred texts of your religion unless those texts are not true. There are truths in the books of almost all religions of the world, but there are also writings that can misguide the simple ones. There is a great difference between the light and the dark. There are holy texts that originated with God and His Messengers and Prophets, and there are texts that originated with the evil one and its servants. Take what is holy and feed upon its words. Hold firmly to that which is holy. Remove from yourselves that which is evil.

Seek God and His light; be charitable to all and be a light to everyone you meet; by doing so you will be guided by God's own hand. God is King!

Giving to Charity

If you give charity in the hopes of others seeing or praising you, you have given nothing at all.

Ask and It Will be Given

If you are in need of anything, ask the Father and He will give it according to His Will. If your desire is because of greed, materialism or for nefarious purposes, you will not receive that which you ask, for your desire is not of a godly nature, but of the darkness instead.

The Father knows your needs, and He will not give according to unrighteous desires.

The Words I Speak

If you read, study, contemplate or hear My words devoutly and on a daily basis, your sins will be burned away. The words I speak are from the Father who gives them to Me for the benefit of His Remnant.

When you read or hear My words along with the experiences of devotees with a serious attitude, I will be with you.

Readings for Gatherings

On the seventh day of the week (Saturday), you should come together to read portions of Torah¹. On Sundays, you should read the words of the Didache². On Mondays, you should read from the Gospel of Holy Prophet Mani³. On Wednesdays, you should read from the appointed words of the Oahspe⁴ [only specific books of the Oahspe].

In addition to these books, you should continue reading the sacred texts that are traditional to your community, for example, the Psalms of Israel, Proverbs of Solomon, New Testament, Gospels of Matthew and Thomas, Epistle of James, and others. But every day, you should read from the words of the Giliana Kudsha⁵.

If you are not able to meet together as a congregation, you should read and meditate on these Scriptures privately. In doing so, always pray for wisdom and guidance. Pray before and after reading the Scriptures.

Editor's notes

1 The traditional Sabbath texts read from the first 5 books of Moses: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy. Mir Izgadda does not mention the Haftarah reading.

2 The Didache, also known as the Teachings of Jesus Christ through the Apostles. This is a sacred text composed around 50 A.D.

3 A compilation of translated texts from various Manichaean sources.

4 Books to be read from the Oahspe Bible: Oahspe, Voice of Man, Book of Jehovih (Chapters I-VIII), Book of Judgement (Chapters I-XXXVIII), Book of Inspiration (Chapters I-XVII), Book of Jehovih's Kingdom on Earth (Chapters I-XXVI), and Book of Discipline (Chapters I-XIV)

5 See the following sections of this booklet for more information: "Your Holy Book", and "Feeding on the Sacred Words".

Persecution of the Remnant

Fear not, my children, because the world will persecute each one of you. The world hates those who walk in the light.

The angels who were appointed to protect the earth are now preparing to leave. With their presence no longer in your world, the chaos of those who hate the children of light will increase. Wickedness will increase in every place on earth. The myriads who refuse to know the truth of My Father's Word will increase and they will attempt to overthrow every form of righteous practice. They will attempt to destroy the Remnant.

You are not to be like the world. Do not walk in their ways. Do not speak their language, for they speak with the tongue of lies. The world will hate you because you do not follow their path.

Do not fear, for I am with those who practice righteousness. I am with those who walk in the way of My Father who sits above the heavens. Although some of you may perish by the hands of those who hate you, some of you will feel the heat of the fire of the persecutors, but I assure you that none of those who belong to the Father will be lost. You will be brought to safety; you will be brought to your eternal home.

I am with you. God is King.

I Am With My Sheep

I am with those who worship the Father in spirit and in truth, those who put the Commandments of the Father first, and those who seek peace with their families and neighbours.

Remaining Faithful

True believers are those who worship the One Eternal Creator, and are disciples of His Son. They worship their Father who sits above the heavens and serve His Son who manifests Himself through the various Messengers sent by His Father.

A true believer is required to faithfully believe the truth, have faith in the revealed messages of this day, and diligently follow certain customs and traditions that are given down to the greater assembly of truth, known as the Remnant. Those are your duties. It is the United Covenant that is to be taught to all the believers in your household.

Neglect not your duties as a servant of the Eternal One. Remind your children and those around you who believe, to always be strong in their faith in their One Father, and vigilant in their work for building the Kingdom of the Creator.

By remaining faithful to the truths of ancient and modern times, you shall be blessed. By following the customs and traditions established for the members of the United Covenant of the Religion of Light, you will be blessed.

I will speak with you on the customs in the days to come.

Do Not Be Discouraged

Do not be discouraged when those around you fall from the narrow path that leads to life.

Strengthen yourself with the words of the Creator.

Pray for your fellow brothers and sisters in the faith, and pray for those who have fallen away to seek conversion.

There is Hope

It has been promised that the Spirit of holiness will descend upon you to give you knowledge of the truth. It is that same Spirit of holiness who will comfort you in times of need.

In times of trials and disappointments, as you strive to walk the narrow path, call upon the Father of Lights to send down the Spirit of holiness. Through the Spirit you will be encouraged and lifted up.

At times it may seem that there is no hope, due to the rampant diseases and death in your world. However, I say to you, there is hope. There is light and it is found in the Scriptures; it is found the words of the Messengers of the Father.

Do not despair. As you study the Scriptures, by the guidance of the Spirit, you will be strengthened in the words of your Creator.

(See John 14:26)

Israel's Conversion

Modern day Israel will embrace His Messengers, for it has been promised in the Scriptures. They shall eventually listen to the guiding words of their Shepherd and shall be gathered into the Synagogue of Light.

Continue to pray for the conversion of Israel and for the world.

The Commandments Are Not Too Difficult

The commandments of the Father are not too difficult to observe, but for some of Remnant, they are not able to fulfil them perfectly. The Father is aware of those who strive for perfection and of those who practice religious fakery. Do not be found among the latter.

The universal laws have been given as a standard for the grading of humanity, but the commandments have been given as a standard for the grading of the Remnant.

My beloved brethren, do not weep because you are unable to fill all the commandments of the Father. My Father in heaven knows your heart and He knows what your capabilities are. Do your utmost to fulfil all that you are able, and He will grade you according to His knowledge, and not according to your weakness.

Be at peace and know that the Father loves each one of you. He knows you individually and judgement is according to His own wisdom.

Minor Mistakes in the Oahspe

It has been stated in previous ages, that the Oahspe is not perfect. “Not immaculate in this Book, OAHSPÉ; but to teach mortals how to attain to hear the Creator’s Voice, and to see His heavens, in full consciousness, whilst still living on the earth; and to know of a truth the place and condition awaiting them after death.” The Oahspe was given through the hands of a scribe named Newbrough by angels of the Creator. Through that scribe and from various printing issues, some mistakes can be found within the text. Other errors are due to one of the angels who had not been born into the inorganic heavens before the original Oahspe had been written. Because of this, there are several verses that often give the student the wrong impression about the truth of Jehovih’s words.

Even with the present mistakes, the importance of the Oahspe Bible can not be overstated. First, the Remnant is in need of the Oahspe for proper formation and to understand the true meaning of spiritual and physical affiliation. Second, the world needs the Oahspe to have a better understanding of Jehovih the Creator.

Remain confident that, in most cases, the mistakes in the translation are minor and that it can be relied upon as a fairly accurate representation of what Jehovih’s spirit world – that is, His heavenly kingdom – was attempting to relay through the scribe. With this in mind, take comfort that this particular Bible does in fact contain the words of Jehovih through His angelic messengers.

Jehovih's Faithists have in their midst certain individuals from among the Remnant who have been anointed by the Spirit of Truth who are able to answer questions about the text. There are messengers of a high celestial nature who assist these anointed ones in a proper understanding of Jehovih's words to the Remnant and to the world. Thus, the minor mistakes in the Oahspe should never deter anyone who is serious about Jehovih's Kingdom.

A Warning Concerning the Delta Variant

My dear brothers and sisters, faithful sheep of my Father's household. Peace be with you.

With the current variant of COVID which is called Delta, it is likely to cause the death of more young and elderly. It is important that those of you with children to use more caution than usual. Those who are elderly or with chronic illnesses and weakened immune systems should also take great precautions regarding their safety. This variant may be the most contagious and deadly to date. I am saddened to state that unprecedented numbers of children and others will die in this season of the new variant. I beg each of you not to think that the Creator is the cause. He is not the cause of this sickness. The evil one has unleashed, through the hands of his own human servants, this disease, and the evil one has plans for additional illnesses to develop.

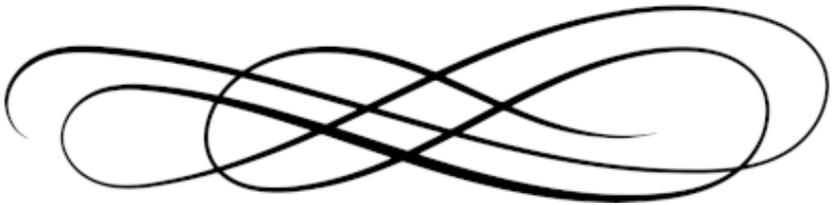

Scientists and healthcare officials in the world have confirmed that the previous vaccines have no effect on the Delta variant. In other words, if you received a vaccine to help prevent COVID, it is believed to be useless against the Delta variant. If a vaccine is developed, it is a personal choice to accept it or not. However, if a vaccine contains ingredients of aborted fetuses, it would be a violation of the Scriptures of all Spiritual Communities within the Religion of Light to receive such a vaccine.

Not only should you be praying for the safety and protection of yourself and your families and friends, but also for the entire assembly of my Father's people – your spiritual brothers and sisters in the faith.

If you are faithful in your walk on the Father's holy path, and you lose your life for any reason, your soul will be protected and be brought forth to His spiritual flock and given healing and rest in paradise. This I promise, for it is not from my mouth, but from the very word of my Father in heaven.

I am always with you.
